Dudley puts you within easy reach of all the action, without having to live in the city itself, while a dedicated local council ensures that there's plenty to do right on your doorstep too. Here's a quick guide to all the essentials, with everything you need to make you feel at home here from day one.

Going out

The West Midlands is famous for its cuisine, especially in the curry houses of Birmingham where the Balti was born. But you don't have to venture that far for a quality meal, with a range of restaurants and pubs close at hand. Here are two that are within walking distance:

Suruchi Restaurant - Tel: 01902 883063

Sport and Leisure

Dudley is served by four nature reserves and five parks, which are currently benefiting from a £3.4million investment as part of the Government's Liveability scheme. Of these, Sedgley Hall Park lies within easy reach of the development. For the more active, Dudley Leisure Centre caters for a wide range of sports, from squash to swimming, with special rate Option+ passes available, while for those who want to take things a little easier, Himley Hall offers 180 acres of gardens by Capability Brown for you to explore and unwind.

Shopping

You'll find all you need in nearby Dudley, including a wide range of High Street names and specialist stores. And for a more adventurous shopping trip, the famous Merry Hill Shopping Centre lies just a few miles to the north on the edge of Wolverhampton, boasting over 200 stores and over 8,000 free parking spaces.

Something Different

Take a trip to nearby Telford and step back in time with a huge selection of themed museums remembering the birth of the industrial revolution. Don't miss Blists Hill Victorian Town where you can take part in traditional crafts and shop with old money in traditional stores.

Transport

Situated just off one of the main routes into Dudley, the development enjoys excellent public transport links into the town and beyond. Both Wolverhampton and Birmingham lie within easy reach by car, while the M5 and M6 are both easily accessible.
